We are faced daily with the terms sex, money and power. Whether we like it or not, these powers are ingrained in us collectively.

How do we deal with them without losing ourselves and without lying to ourselves? How do we find a way to dance authentically with society and with ourselves? Are you allowed to enjoy money, sex and power, or are these elements of life not spoken about, and everyone is left alone dealing with them in their own way. Who has had lessons in school regarding these topics?

These imprints are deeply rooted and during this seminar we'll be dealing with these topics individually.

The basic powers of our being penetrate our life and the speechlessness of the toxic shame often clouds the clear understanding of the real powers of our existence.

Van vrijdag 5 april 2019 om 09u30 tot en met zondag 7 april 2019 om 17u00.

With or without, neither works...
Understanding the paradox of our real life in depth.

Voor wie?

This experience is for everybody who would like to create more awareness around these topics and transform. For your own personal growth, but also as a coach, therapist or trainer to understand your clients better.

Door wie?

Andrea is trainer en coach. Her passion to accompany people in their process of personal growth on all levels of consciousness. She will confront us in the workshop Money – Sex – Power with these important issues where a lot of the time traumas are involved.

The workshop will be given in English. Andrea also understands Dutch.
